

9.) MTH-StanDouglas-8276v3

Artist Stan Douglas drew on archival research to reconstruct nine remarkable but forgotten moments from the history of the original Pennsylvania Station (1910-1963). He seamlessly combined photographs of costumed performers with digitally recreated interiors of the demolished Station. The resulting images pay tribute to that grand building and to the layers of human experience that bring our civic spaces to life.