

KehindeWiley-7441

o Artist Kehinde Wiley's site-specific stained-glass installation restages the grandeur of 18th century European ceiling frescoes. Working through the modern Black body, the artist reimagines breakdance at the intersection of the epic and the intimate to offer a nuanced perspective on art history and the broader evolution of culture.