

ElmgreenDragset-6537v2

o The artist duo Elmgreen & Dragset's fantastical inverted cityscape is inspired by iconic buildings in New York City and from around the world, which the artists have combined with architectural structures of their own invention. The imaginary metropolis descends from the ceiling like luminous stalactites and celebrates the new perspectives and interconnectedness that travel can provide.