Amtrak Promotes ‘Vermont Winter BOGO’ for Travel Between Connecticut and Vermont

Travel on the Vermont with a companion at no additional cost

VERMONT – Customers who are looking to travel with a companion can take advantage of Amtrak’s latest sale, which offers one free companion rail fare on the Vermont with the purchase of one fare. The sale is valid for travel in coach between New Haven, Conn., and St. Albans, Vt. Customers must use promo code V502 when booking. This sale is valid between Friday, Dec. 23 and Saturday, Dec. 31, 2022 for travel between Sunday, Jan. 1 and Friday, March 31, 2023.

“The Vermont Winter BOGO sales makes train travel between Connecticut and Vermont affordable and fun,” said Amtrak Vice President, State Supported Services Ray Lang. “Amtrak is pleased to offer this promotion to our customers and their companions. They can share the experience of taking the train for a winter getaway to see family and friends or to participate in season recreational activities, such as skiing.”

Customers can enjoy free WiFi, the freedom to use phones and electronic devices at all times (no “airplane mode”) and the ability to travel with small pets. The Vermont is equipped with a café car, large spacious seats with plenty of leg room and no middle seat.

This offer is not combinable with any other discount offer and upgrades are not permitted. To see full details and book, visit amtrak.com/vermont-winter-bogo. Blackout dates include Feb. 17 and 20, 2023.
